Job Title: Director of Family Ministries Job Descripton: First Parish Church of Weston, Mass. Seeks Full Time Director of Family Ministries

First Parish Church of Weston, a Christian Church with a rich 300+ year history and community identity, which is affiliated with the Unitarian Universalist Association and comprised of one senior minister and 400+ members, is seeking a creative and dynamic individual to serve as full time Director of Family Ministries (DFM). This position will provide leadership, direction and oversight to our church school, youth, and family oriented programs. The DFM will be an active and visible leader within First Parish Church of Weston and the extended community that it serves.

Our successful DFM candidate will be a self-starter with a strong vision for effective family ministries and a proven track record exhibiting an active and vibrant connection with children, youth, and their parents. Candidate can be from any Christian denomination and will be trained or have extensive experience in religious education, be an experienced supervisor, and have strong communication skills including experience with social media. Candidate will work collaboratively and be sensitive to pastoral care concerns. Position reports to Senior Minister and Standing Committee with salary and compensation commensurate with education and experience.

Specific DFM responsibilities will include:

- Lead curriculum and program development; supervise church school, children's chapel, youth programs, parent education programs and related staff.
- Work collaboratively with Senior Minister and committees to develop multigenerational services.
- Assist Senior Minister with pastoral care of church school families.
- Manage the budget for church school and youth programs.
- Participate in weekly staff and relevant meetings.
- Affirm the Covenant and promote the mission and vision of First Parish Church in Weston. (Covenant of First Parish Church in Weston is: "In the love of truth and in the spirit of Jesus Christ, we join for the worship of God and the service of Humankind.")
